MONTHLY GUIDELINES FOR SEPTEMBER 2017

CLASS-PRE SCHOOL

Dear Parent

September, It marks the last month of the monsoon which started in June. Overall in India, September is drier and sunnier than the months of July and August and is often cloudy.

Some of the biggest religious festivals in India take place during September, as the festival season is in full swing. The colorful spectacle is captivating. Here's the best of what's on in September in India

GANESH CHATURTHI (25 Aug to 5 Sept, 2017)

The spectacular 11 day Ganesh Chaturthi festival honors the birth of the beloved Hindu elephant-headed God, Lord Ganesha. The start of the festival sees huge, elaborately crafted statues of Ganesha installed in homes and podiums. At the end of the festival, the statues are paraded through the streets, accompanied by much singing and dancing, and then submerged in the ocean/ river/ water body.

EID(2 Sept, 2017)

Eid Ul Juha is also called " Festival of sacrifice" and is considered holy muslim festival. It honors the willingness of Ibrahm to sacrifice his son, an act of submission to God's command.

ONAM(4 Sept, 2017)

Onam is a traditional ten day harvest festival that marks the homecoming of the mythical King Mahabali. The festival is celebrated with flower rangoli's, new clothes, feasts served on banana leaves, dancing, sports, games, and snake boat races.

TEACHER'S DAY (5TH Sept 2017)

The birth date (5 September 1888) of the second President of India, Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, is celebrated, where teachers and students report to school as usual but the usual activities and classes are replaced by activities of celebration, thanks and remembrance.

ONAM PULIKALI TIGER PLAY (8 Sept, 2017)

Hundreds of grown men dressed up as tigers and dancing to the beat of traditional percussion instruments are an unexpected feature of Onam celebrations.

LADAKH FESTIVAL(20-27 Sept, 2017)

The Ladakh Festival is a cultural extravaganza. It has plenty to offer tourists, including polo-match, music concerts, mask dances from the monasteries, motorbike/cycle expedition to Khardung-la, Thanka painting exhibition, archery, river rafting, and folk songs.

NAVARATRI(21-29 Sept, 2017)

Navaratri is a nine day festival that celebrates the Mother Goddess in all her manifestations, including Durga, Lakshmi and Saraswati. Worship and fasting take place in the daytime, while the nights are reserved for feasting and dancing. The festival culminates with Dussehra, the victory of good over evil, on the tenth day.

DURGA PUJA(26-30 Sept, 2017).

In honor of warrior Goddess Durga, beautifully handcrafted statues of Durga are installed in podiums in almost every lane of the city during this festival. People flock to the streets to view the goddess statues amid mesmerizing light shows, drumming, and aromatic food stalls. On the last day of the festival, the statues are paraded around the city before being submerged in the river.

DUSSEHRA (30 Sept, 2017).

The tenth day of the Navaratri festival is known as Dussehra. It's devoted to celebrating the defeat of the demon king Ravana by Lord Rama. Effigies of Ravana go up in smoke all over India.

MAPS JUNIOR students too will be blooming in September month by knowing and celebrating Eid ,Teacher's Day, Ganesh Chaturthi ,Grandparents Day & Dussehra.

Kindly go through the planned learning schedule for the month of September 2017:
