To instill its essence among the educators, the school organised an interactive session on Artificial Intelligence in Education by Mr. Vaibhav Sharma. The speaker emphasized over the fact that we are in the 4th generation of AI and we must acknowledge that AI is not a threat, but a person who knows AI could be a threat. AI must be taken as an opportunity and not as a threat. AI can be used for personalized and immediate feedback. Learners should be taught practices for how to properly use AI. Learners must be trained to complete the allotted task using critical thinking. It's high time we need to upgrade. Quillbot, Brainly, Edpuzzle, Nearpod were introduced as tools for assessing learners as they help to boost critical thinking. To conclude, the session stressed upon the fact that we as educators need to be updated to ensure that the following generation is auto updated by default and are able to touch the pinnacle of excellence.

The Ramayana's protagonists are living examples of responsibility and steadfast integrity.
