PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Families,
Namaskaar!!!!

As the joyful summer break draws to a close, we hope each of you had a wonderful time filled with rest, exploration, and precious family moments. Whether it was a quiet stay at home, travels to new places, or simply enjoying long, carefree days, we trust the holidays brought happiness and rejuvenation to our young learners and their families.

Summer is not just a time to pause but also a time to grow in different ways—through hobbies, conversations, books, and experiences that go beyond the classroom walls. These moments often plant the seeds of curiosity, creativity, and self-awareness that enrich a child's learning journey.

As we prepare to welcome our students back, we are excited to continue building on this foundation of joyful discovery. The coming weeks will bring new opportunities to collaborate, create, and connect—with friends, mentors, and the world around them.

At Mount Abu Public School, we remain committed to nurturing not just the intellect, but also the heart. We look forward to resuming this beautiful journey together—with renewed energy, fresh perspectives, and deeper bonds.

Thank you for your continued support. Let's step into the new term with positivity and purpose!

Warm regards,
Dr. Jyoti Arora
Principal,

Exploring Nature's Classroom

Jim Corbett Diaries

Exploring Nature's Classroom – Our second group of eager Global Citizens set off on an unforgettable experiential journey to Jim Corbett National Park. Amidst the lush greenery and rustic charm of the Kumoni countryside, students connected deeply with nature and embraced the true spirit of exploration.

From tranquil walks by the Kosi River to reflective visits at serene temples, students experienced a deep connection with both nature and local culture. Thrilling jungle safaris, alive with the sounds of wildlife, brought excitement and adventure to their learning journey. This blend of environmental awareness, cultural appreciation, and real-world learning turned a simple trip into a powerful educational experience. Who knew learning could come with such an epic view!

Say No to Drugs

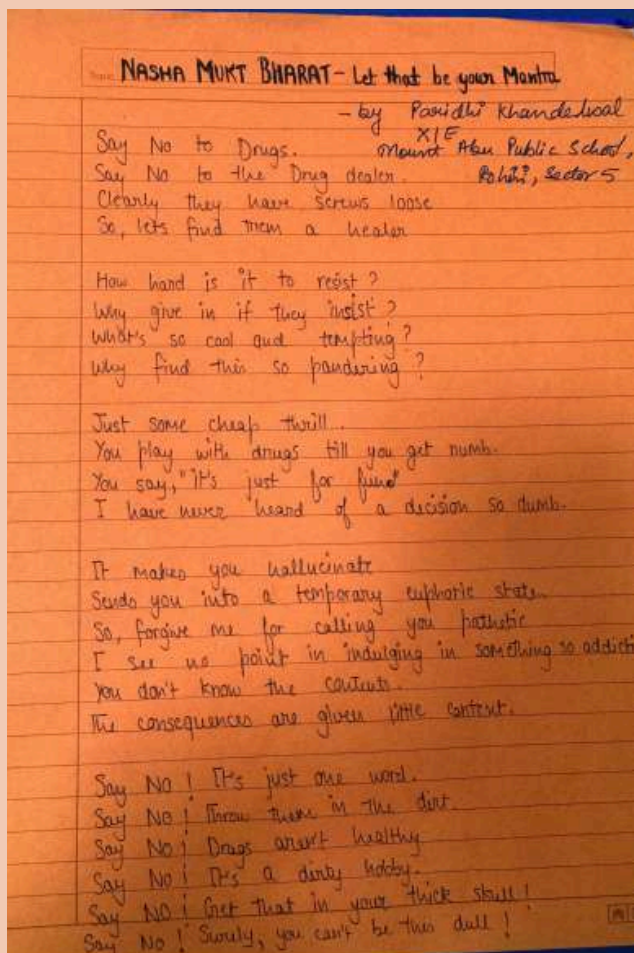

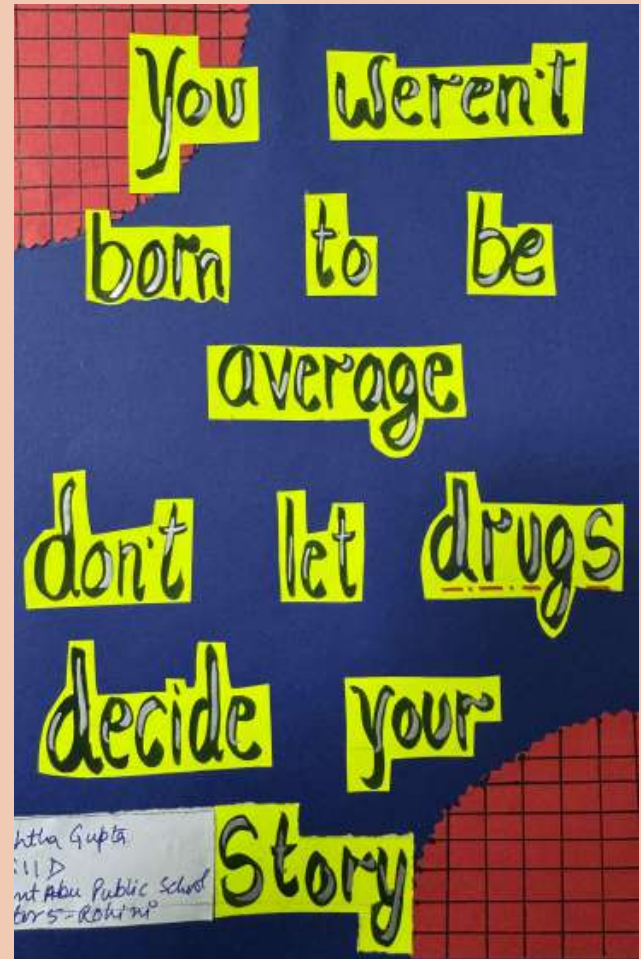

Observing International Day Against Drug Abuse –
26th June 2025

On 26th June 2025, Mount Abu Public School marked the International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, reinforcing its commitment to a Nasha Mukta Bharat.

Students from all classes took the E-Pledge against drug abuse via the MyGov portal, demonstrating a united stand against substance abuse. Creative expressions through drawings, posters, slogans, poems, and impactful audio/video messages on the theme "Say No to Drugs" showcased students' awareness and resolve to lead healthy, purpose-driven lives.

A powerful reminder that change begins with awareness – and the youth are leading the way.

The school held honest talks on the dangers of drug abuse, highlighting its impact on health, relationships, and futures. Students reflected on mental well-being and the strength to say "no."

The community united to spread hope, emphasizing that with support and awareness, every life can choose a bright, drug-free path.

Creative Expressions for a Cause

To mark World Environment Day 2025 and the theme “One Nation, One Mission – End Plastic Pollution,” students from Classes 9 to 12 passionately submitted original poems in English and Hindi.

Guided by teachers, this competition combined creativity with a strong message on plastic pollution, inspiring awareness and action. It nurtured both poetic talent and a commitment to environmental responsibility among the youth.

This initiative empowered students to become eco-leaders by using poetry as a voice for change. Each poem reflects Mount Abu School's commitment to nurturing environmentally aware and compassionate youth who believe that even young voices can drive real impact.

The school remains dedicated to supporting sustainability and climate responsibility, seeing such efforts as more than competitions—they spark dialogue, empathy, and action.

Together, we raise voices in resolve for a cleaner, greener tomorrow.

EVOLVE: A Journey of Inner Growth

Mount Abu Teachers Reflect on Values, Mentorship, and Personal Excellence

On 28th June 2025, Mount Abu Public School hosted a thought-provoking workshop titled “Why Lead a Life of Values”, organized by the Ramakrishna Mission for teachers across all levels. The workshop, conducted by renowned educators Ms. Sumana and Mr. Karthik Shankar, was held in the ATL from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM.

The session commenced with a reflection on where values originate—from family, teachers, society, and personal experiences. Emphasizing the crucial role of educators, it highlighted how teachers shape the value systems of their students.

One of the key activities involved A Teacher’s Dilemma, where participants analyzed a moral dilemma through a powerful picture, sparking insightful group discussions on ethical decision-making.

Another important concept introduced was the EVOLVE framework, encouraging teachers to Explore, Visualise, Observe, Learn, Validate, and Enrich their teaching methods and personal growth.

The workshop also featured introspective activities where teachers identified traits of their ‘better version’, setting personal goals for self-improvement. The session concluded with a discussion on role models vs mentors, emphasizing the significance of mentorship in personal and professional development.

This enriching session inspired our educators to integrate values into both their teaching and personal lives.
